

Pagosa Springs:
For Every Season
of Your Life

Barb Walton

Associate Broker

My husband and I fell in love with Pagosa on a vacation here in the spring of 1996. After 28 years of living in the urban desert (Phoenix), we were ready for a positive change. Within three months of that visit, we moved into our new Pagosa home... and have felt grateful and blessed ever since.

Here we enjoy four seasons, clean air and a friendly small town lifestyle. It reminds me of my midwestern roots, growing up in Illinois.

As a couple, my husband Larry and I enjoy gardening, bird watching and exercising at the community recreation center a few times each week... attempting to work off the calories we consume because of another activity we enjoy... cooking!

On some days, my husband drives off in his jeep to enjoy his photography hobby, while I indulge in quilting, and searching the stores for interesting additions to my fabric stash!

More importantly, we enjoy being the parents of three grown sons and (even more so!) the grandparents of five grandchildren, one of whom live close to us. How we love them!

Living in Pagosa has been such a positive experience for us, I truly enjoy helping others find their dream property as well. In truth, I don't feel like I'm "selling". I feel like I'm helping new friends fulfill their dreams! What could be better than that?

Making new lifelong friends in this business has been so rewarding, and having them refer their friends and family to me is truly a blessing. I'm eager to help my clients buy or sell and have a low-stress experience. There are so many great properties and homes on the market today... I'd love to show you what Pagosa has to offer!
